Race Day Recap

Seven 18ft skiffs hit the water last weekend as we experienced warm conditions, with clear skies and a stronger wind than anticipated, which made for a riveting race!

It was a fantastic day of sailing and a terrific way to draw to a close both the Australian Championship and the Summer Points Score.

After 6 races the Summer Point Score was won by Yendys from Tangalooma and Britannia. The Galloping Ghost Trophy for the H18s Australian Championship was won by Yendys from The Mistake and Britannia.

Congratulations to the Yendys crew of Barry Watson, Michael Van Stom, Jack Tang, Andrew Buckland, Andrew Hay, Don Buckley and Russell Debny.

The conditions were.

With thanks to our on-water support team of Barley, Wendy, Russell, Bob, Chuck and Tomoko, with crew-on by Tomoko, Rob on WB 379, Ross on the BBQ and Fiona on Raffle.

We look forward to seeing you this week down at the Squaddie.
